CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

A Fool and Mysterious Murder in Iowa.
DES MOINES, Iowa, July 11.—The following are the particulars of the murder of R. S. Clingan, Polk City, in this county. Late last night, as far as is known, as Mr. Clingan, with his clerk, S. C. Hauger, were closing the store for the night, two men came to the door saying, "Good evening, gentlemen," drawing revolvers at the same time. Without any warning they fired at Clingan, the ball taking effect below the collar bone. He died instantly. There is no clue to the perpetrators. The whole country adjacent to Polk City was aroused and squads of men on horseback spent the night scouring the whole country. There is a report just now that the pursuers are close on the track of the murderers. It is generally supposed that this is the third chapter of the mysterious murder of Stubbs, the Mayor of the place, last year, who was shot dead by masked men who entered his bedroom. He and Clingan were good friends, and Clingan has been taking an active part in ferreting out his murderers.

Cowboy Killed in Kansas.
DODGE CITY, Kan., July 10.—Yesterday afternoon, about 6 o'clock, a party of five cowboys, well under the influence of liquor, mounted their horses to have a race, and when near a house, one of them rode his horse on the porch and fired off his six-shooter. Two of the others then commenced firing and at the same time put up the cowboys. The City Marshal and his assistants quickly arrived and sent a few shots after them, which caused the 300 yards away one of them fell dead from his horse. The other two escaped. It was found that the fallen man was John Ballack, a resident of the Indian Territory, who arrived with a herd of cattle from Texas this morning. His friends threaten to kill every other man in town before morning.

Robbed by Tramps and Killed.
GREENFIELD, Ill., July 11.—On Tuesday night four harvestmen boarded a train at Whitehall, twelve miles from this place, to steal a ride. When at this station, four other men boarded the same car apparently for the same purpose, but after the train was in motion they drew revolvers and killed the four tramps. One man, named Patrick, after making them deliver what money they had, drove them off the moving train. Attempts to Raise the Daphne.
Eighty Boats Recovered.
LONDON, July 11.—A number of unsuccessful attempts have been made to raise the steamer Daphne. Eighty boats have thus far been recovered. An inquiry has been instituted by the government to ascertain the cause of the accident, and was begun under the direction of Sir Edward Reed. The building of the Daphne testified that she was launched in the usual manner, and that no fear had been entertained of the danger. FRONTIER LAND ENTERIES.

Washington, July 11.—Over six hundred reports have been received by the Commissioner of the General Land Office from thirty special agents engaged in the investigation of fraudulent land entries up to July 1st. In many cases supplemental reports have been called for, covering points which are not sufficiently specified to warrant official action. About three hundred and fifty reports have shown sufficient evidence of fraud to justify the Land Office in summarily cancelling the entries.

TEXAS COLONIZATION CONVENTION.

Austin, Tex., July 10.—A State Convention of colored people will meet here today to consider the moral, social and educational status of the colored population of Texas, and appoint a delegate to the proposed National Convention.

BETTER CLASS OF IRISH EMIGRANTS.

Boston, July 11.—About 200 assisted emigrants arrived this morning on the Austrian. They consist mainly of families and are better clad and more healthy than those who preceded them. They have money and are bound West. Inquiries among them develop the fact that none of them were of the poorer class.

SQUAD KILLED—Buck Killed—Etc.

ERREKA, Nev., July 11.—News was received from Cherry Creek, where a party of men, including a man named Charles Jenks, an insane man, who was running loose in Pahrengue valley, Nye county, was shot and killed by a squad of settlers a day or two since. It is supposed to be a case of murder.

PEPPER PAPER EMPLOYERS.

New York, July 11.—Five pepper Pot families were brought to this port by the steamer Lydian Monarch. The authorities informed the steamship company that these immigrants were returned to London, whence they came.

SPIRITUALISM.

There is a movement on foot to thoroughly investigate the true inwardness of modern spiritualism. No body can rightfully object to this, for if there is anything in the fact it will stand the test of the most searching investigation. If it is a fraud and delusion, as the majority of sane men believe, the sooner and more thoroughly it is exposed the better it will be for the world at large, as well as for its credulous adherents. The late Henry Seydett, who gave a new bell for Independence Hall, left a large number of bequests, amounting to $4,500,000, for public and charitable use, among which was one of $50,000 to endow a chair of moral and intellectual philosophy in the University of Pennsylvania, with the expressed wish that the University would thoroughly investigate modern Spiritualism, in which he was a firm believer. The University accepted the bequest and has now begun steps to carry out the wish of the testator. A Philadelphia special says: A commission has been appointed, of which the Chairman is Dr. William Pepper, Provost of the University, and a gentleman of acknowledged scientific attainments of a high order. Dr. Pepper will look into the physiology and medical phases of the problem, and will devote his attention to the subject of spiritualism from these standpoints. Professors Ledy and Koenig will study the physical aspects so far as they relate to natural philosophy, while Mr. Fullerton and Rev. Professor Thompson will view the subject from a purely intellectual and metaphysical standpoint. There is now on hand available for the prosecution of an investigation $15,000.

Arizona newspapers evidently believe that the law of compensation always holds good, as they make a note of the capturing of a ship and the drowning of a hundred persons, and then thank heaven that there's no water in that Territory.

The color line is not very distinctly drawn in Massachusetts. Two French white women were married in that State during the month of June to negro husbands. The love of the old Bay State for the negro must be genuine.

JUPITER PLUVIUS is taking a hand in the Tertio-Millennial celebration at Santa Fe, much to the annoyance of the visitors.

MEN AND WOMEN.

Thomas Nast is in Paris.

Judge Hoadly is a Royal Arch Mason.

The Marquis of Lorne writes wishy-washy poetry.

Princess Louise gets along with sixty-five franks.

Senator Pendleton has a great weakness for macaroni.

Baron Rothschild of Paris lights his private car with electricity.

Rosa Bonheur is in her sixty-first year. She dresses in male attire and paints incessantly.

Ex-Senator Bruce is the wealthiest colored man in this country. He owns two large plantations in Mississippi, worth more than $100,000 each.

Governor Foster, of Ohio, evidently does not like his papers. He sent a letter to "Alexander H. Stephens, Governor of Georgia," last Monday, and the Georgians are indignant that he didn't know Georgia has had two Governors since Stephens.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Objection is made to Hoadly, Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio, because he was first a Whig, then a Democrat, then a Know Nothing, then a Republican, then a Greeley Republican and now a Democrat. This only shows Mr. Hoadly's remarkable versatility.

She doesn't mind in male attire and paints incessantly.

THE STORY OF A WICKED TOWN.

Perhaps one of the prettiest spots in this or any other State is the old and dilapidated village of Hopewell, situated as it is in a cleft of the Bull Run Mountains, embracing some 500 acres known as the "Hopewell Valley," surrounded on all sides by lofty eminences and pyramids of stone. The fertility of this valley is proverbial. Divided among many small farmers, each maintains for himself a sturdy independence. Thirty years ago this village boasted of stores, mills, tanneries, factories and hotels, in value hundreds of thousands. To-day scarce one stone remains on another to mark her former splendor. But in the place of art and industry, there is now a wilderness of weeds and flowers, each maintaining for itself a sturdy independence.
